COHORT MODEL

The Ed. S. in Instructional Technology is structured as a cohort. Candidates are admitted once yearly for the Fall semester. Each cohort of candidates progresses through their Ed. S. coursework as a group. Upon completion of the Ed. S. in Instructional Technology, candidates who already hold Ga Teacher Certification in a P-12 field, can obtain the P-12 Instructional Technology certification. Candidates who choose to take ITEC 8136 in their last semester of study will also graduate with the Online Teaching Endorsement.
