

Teacher Agency Survey

		Strongly Agree	Agree	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
1.	I usually look forward to each working day at this school.
2.	Many of the students I teach are not capable of learning the material I am supposed to teach them.
3.	The amount a student can learn is primarily related to family background.
4.	I often feel satisfied with my job in this school.
5.	The attitudes and habits my students bring to class greatly reduce their chances for academic success.
6.	When it comes right down to it, a teacher really can't do much because a student's home environment is a large influence on his or her achievement.
7.	I often feel successful in providing the kind of education I would like to provide for most of my students.
8.	When I really try, I can get through to most of my difficult students.
9.	If students are not disciplined at home, they aren't likely to accept any discipline at school.
10.	I sometimes feel it is a waste of time to try to do my best as a teacher.
11.	If a student did not remember information I gave in a previous lesson, I would not know how to increase his or her retention in the next lesson.
12.	If parents would do more for their children, I could do more.
13.	You can count on most staff members to help out anywhere, anytime – even though it may not be part of their official assignment.
14.	When a student gets a better grade than he or she usually gets, it is usually because I found a better way to teach him or her.
15.	Most of my colleagues do not share my beliefs and values about what the central mission of the school should be.
16.	If a student in my class becomes disruptive and noisy, I feel assured that I know some techniques to redirect him or her quickly.
17.	I feel accepted and respected as a colleague by most staff members.
18.	There is little cooperative effort among staff members.
19.	Even if I try hard, I cannot get through to the difficult or unmotivated students.
20.	This school seems like a big family; everyone is so close and cordial.
