Visiting Instructor of Special Education — Search #12039
College of Education/Department of Elementary and Special Education

The Department of Elementary and Special Education at Georgia Southern University seeks a Visiting Instructor of Special Education for the upcoming academic year (August 2020 through May 2021). This position will be based on the Statesboro campus, but may have teaching responsibilities on the other campuses as well.

At Georgia Southern, visiting instructors normally teach fifteen credit hours per semester and hold regular office hours. All visiting positions are non-tenure track. The appointment is for Fall 2020 – Spring 2021 with the possibility of a one-year extension pending funding and satisfactory performance. The extension year would be a terminal year, without exception.

Required Qualifications:
- Minimum of a master’s degree in Special Education
- Minimum 3-years of teaching experience
- Willingness to engage with institutional student success initiatives
- Commitment to engaging best practice initiatives in instruction, pedagogy, and mentoring
- Must be authorized to work in the United States for the duration of employment without assistance from the institution

Preferred Qualifications:
- Doctorate in Special Education
- 3-5 years of K-12 teaching experience
- Higher education teaching experience
- Experience teaching online

Screening of applications will begin as they are received and continue until the position is filled. The position starting date is August 1, 2020. A complete application consists of a letter addressing the qualifications cited above, as well as specifies how you will promote diversity and inclusion in your work; a curriculum vitae; copies of unofficial graduate transcripts; and the names, addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses of at least three professional references. Finalists will be required to submit to a background investigation. Applications should be sent to:
