Visiting Instructor of Instructional Technology -- Search #12035
College of Education/Department of Leadership, Technology and Human Development

The Department of Leadership, Technology and Human Development at Georgia Southern University seeks a Visiting Instructor of Instructional Technology for the upcoming academic year (August 2020 through May 2021). This position will be based on the Statesboro campus, but may have teaching responsibilities on the other campuses as well.

At Georgia Southern, visiting instructors normally teach fifteen credit hours per semester and hold regular office hours. All visiting positions are non-tenure track. The appointment is for Fall 2020 – Spring 2021 with the possibility of a one-year extension pending funding and satisfactory performance. The extension year would be a terminal year, without exceptions.

Required Qualifications:
- Earned doctorate in Instructional Technology, or a related area, by August 1, 2020
- Ability to design and teach online graduate and undergraduate courses and offer graduate advisement
- Minimum 1-year teaching experience
- Willingness to engage with institutional student success initiatives
- Commitment to engaging best practice initiatives in instruction, pedagogy, and mentoring
- Must be authorized to work in the United States for the duration of employment without assistance from the institution

Preferred Qualifications:
- K-12 teaching experience
- Higher education teaching experience
- Experience teaching online

Screening of applications will begin as they are received and continue until the position is filled. The position starting date is August 1, 2020. A complete application consists of a letter addressing the qualifications cited above, as well as specifies how you will promote diversity and inclusion in your work; a curriculum vitae; copies of unofficial graduate transcripts; and the names, addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses of at least three professional references. Finalists will be required to submit to a background investigation. Applications should be sent to:
